ATM select amount deposit <<extend>> view transaction withdraw <<extend>> Client
Admin
<<include>> <<extend>> manage cashflow
ensure validity
Extension Points
verify transaction <<include>>
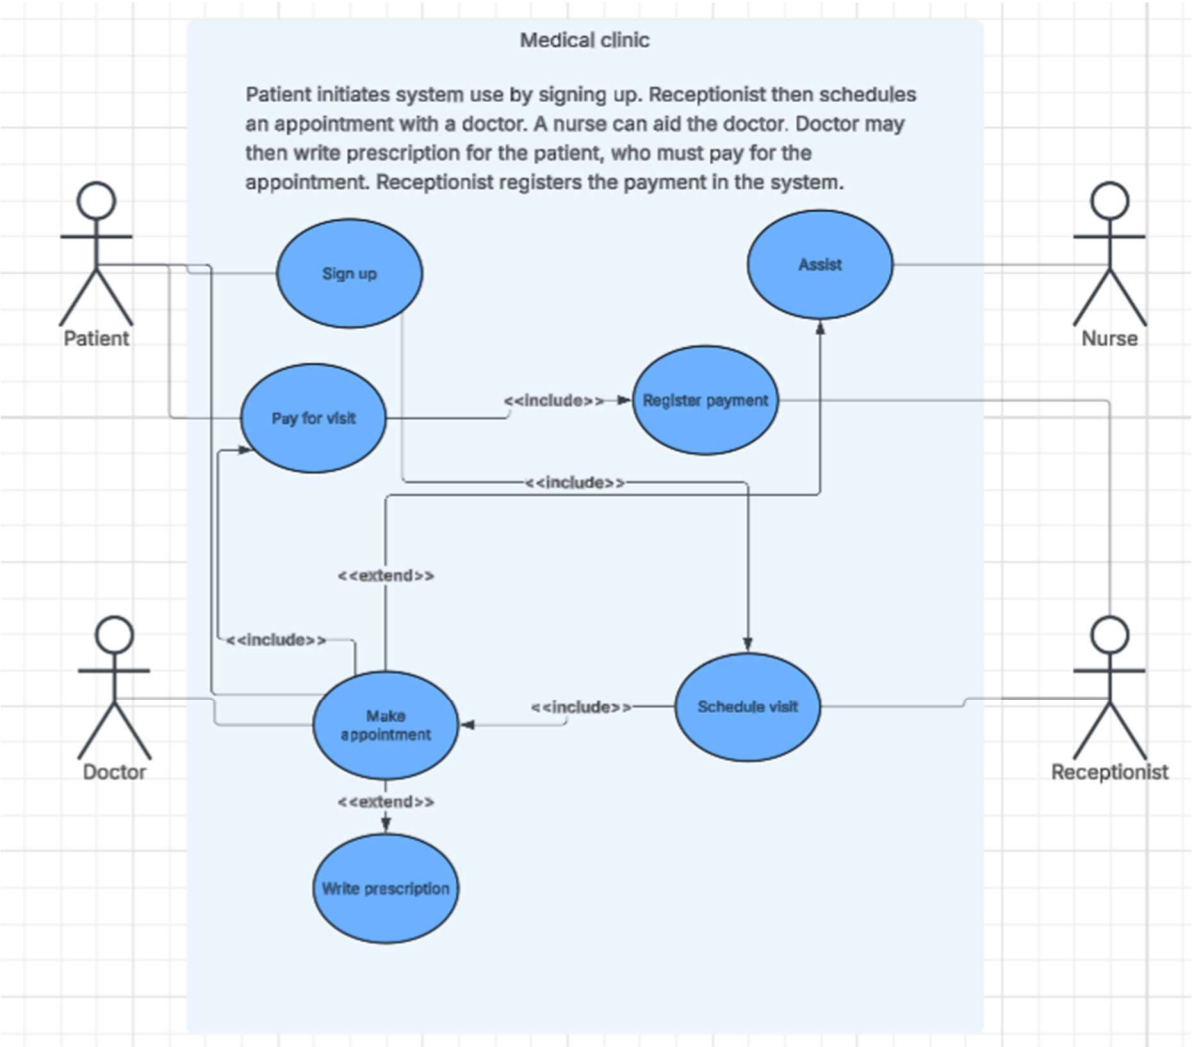
give receipt Client can withdraw or deposit money using ATM. In the process they select amount of money.
System admin monitors cashflow and can view client transactions. They assure system handles transfers correctly and prevents invalid usage.



Medical clinic
Patient initiates system use by signing up. Receptionist then schedules an appointment with a doctor. A nurse can aid the doctor. Doctor may then write prescription for the patient, who must pay for the appointment. Receptionist registers the payment in the system.
Patient
Sign up Assist
Nurse
Pay for visit
<<include>>
Register payment
<<include>> <<extend>> <<include>>
Doctor
Make appointment
<<include>>
Schedule visit
Receptionist <<extend>>
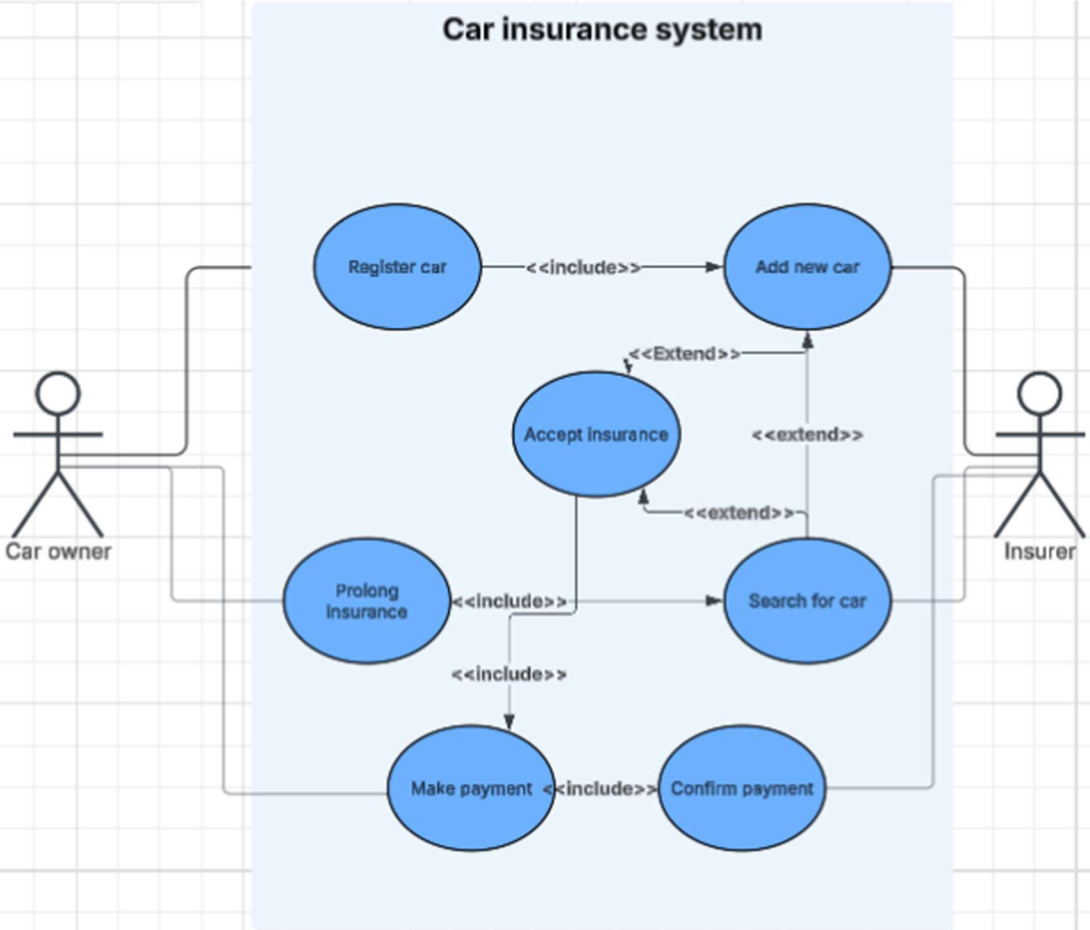
Write prescription



Car owner insures their car. Insurer looks for the car in the system. If it has been registered, they might accept the insurance. Otherwise, they add the car to the database and only then can they accept it. Next, car owner pays for the insurance and the insurer confirms the payment